

Your Name: _____

You will be evaluating each podcast on the following criteria:

Pedagogy: Is this a good teaching method? Are the ideas easy to learn and understand given the manner in which they are presented? Was the material presented in an interesting and engaging way? Was this a good use of the video medium?

Contextualization: Is there sufficient contextualization provided for the lay-public to understand the evolutionary psychology principles being examined?

Details: Is the science clearly explained? Is the level of detail appropriate? Is it clear how specific research contributes to understanding the question/hypothesis/theory being discussed? Was too much or too little covered in the video?

Sources Discussed and More to Explore: Are there sufficient additional materials? Are there too many? Is there anything particularly interesting included that you think will really capture a viewer's interest?

Overall Impression: What's your overall impression of the video, the additional materials... everything? Good, bad, indifferent?
