

Group Presentation Grade Sheet: Group Grade

Your Name:

Your ID:

Date of Presentation:

This grading sheet is to be used by students in the class to grade a group's presentation. You are asked to evaluate the group's presentation on the four criteria listed below. For each of the four criteria, please circle the word that you think best describes the group's level of performance.

Remember that you are grading the group as a whole, not individuals within the group.

Please give careful consideration to your choices, as the class component of grading will account for 25% of a group's mark on its presentation.

Your evaluation of a group will remain confidential. Only the instructor will see the grades you give a group.

Content: Does the group adequately explain, address, and interpret the material they are presenting?

Very Poor Satisfactory Good Very Good Brilliant

Detail: How appropriate is the group's level of detail for a fourth year psychology course?

Very Poor Satisfactory Good Very Good Brilliant

Contextualization: How well does the group put the material they cover in the context of the course?

Very Poor Satisfactory Good Very Good Brilliant

Pedagogy: How good a job has the group done of teaching you about their topic? Did they make the material interesting and engaging?

Very Poor Satisfactory Good Very Good Brilliant

Additional Comments: